Overall, These partnerships have provided a sustainable revenue that has enabled our community programmes to thrive. Here's to strengthening and building new relationships in 2026.

"We booked an Italian-themed cooking class for our works Christmas party, and it was nothing short of fantastico! From the moment we walked in, the atmosphere was warm, festive, and full of that unmistakable Italian charm. It was the perfect mix of festive celebration, team building, and a genuinely memorable experience."
